DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 12/23/2003 and 3/9/2004 have been entered.
2. Claims 11, 22-25 are pending. Claims 1-10, 12-21 have been canceled according to the supplemental amendment filed on 3-9-2004. There are two claim 22 in the amendment. Therefore claims 22-24 as recited should be claims 22-25.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 23-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The subgenus recited in claims 22-24 is not described in the specification, although species falling within the subgenus is described. The court, however, has held that "whatever may be the viability of an inductive-deductive approach to arriving at a claimed subgenus, it cannot be said that such a subgenus is necessarily described by a genus encompassing it and a species upon which it reads." In re Wilder, 736 F.2d 1516, 1520, 222 USPQ 369, 372 (Fed. Cir.

Art Unit: 1625

1984). See MPEP 2163.05. Furthermore, a description of the instant R3, R4, R5 is not found in the specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The proviso that 'at least one of R1 and R2 has at least two carbons' has no antecedent basis in the definition of R1 and R2, since a hydrocarbon with one carbon, such as methyl, is not within the definition of R1 and R2. Deletion of the proviso is recommended.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 22, 24, 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sugihara (Analytical Sciences, 1993, 9:593-597, PTO-1449). See page 593, Fig. 1.

Compound 6 (R=n-butyl), compound 8 (R=sec-butyl) and compound 10 (R=t-butyl), are encompassed by the instant claim 22 (formula I).

Compound 14 (R=phenyl) is identical to the compound of instant claim 24 (formula III) wherein all R3 is hydrogen.

Compound 4 (R=CH<sub>3</sub>) is identical to the compound of instant claim 25 (formula IV) wherein R4 and R5 are both hydrogen.

Double Patenting

6. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claim 24 (formula III) is provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 13, 14 of copending Application No. 10/656659. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the instant is species falling within the copending genus.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. The subject matter of claim 11 is allowable.

Juda's Example 27 (3951833, column 8, Table V) has methyl whereas the instant has ethyl as R1 and R2. Since the activity score of Example 27 is below the score of the acceptable biocide (column 8, lines 50-55, 65), motivation to modify Juda's Example 27 by replacing the methyl with the homologous ethyl to arrive at the instant invention is lacking.
